

Scrophularia marilandica

Late Figwort

Pollinator value – high

Bloom time – July to October

Flower color – Reddish brown

Height – 3 ½ - 8 feet

Light requirements – Medium shade to partial sun

Habitat – Woodlands, fence rows, streambanks

Soil moisture – moist

Value to Beneficial Insects - attracts the Ruby-throated Hummingbird, honeybees, bumblebees, leaf-cutting bees, a long-horned bee, Halictid bees, Vespid wasps, and various Eumenine wasps.